

SECRET AND FRATERNAL SOCIETIES OF SALT LAKE

Modern Woodmen.

Although the weather was not of the kind to tempt the neighbors to meeting last Tuesday evening there was one-fifth of Excelsior Camp's membership in the hall when the evening's work was begun. This proves that the camp members are enjoying the meetings, and there was not one member who did not enthusiastically declare that last Tuesday's meeting was better than ever. There was only one candidate for initiation, but this keeps the record intact of having initiations every meeting night. The principal feature of the evening was the speech of Consul McArthur, in which he stressed conclusively that he had the ability to represent Utah as delegate to the head camp in June, a position with the office he was elected at Park City two weeks ago. A great many promises have been made which will be kept, and the camp will be written on this subject later. Excelsior Camp presented Captain James Terry, with a beautiful wooden chair, suitably engraved, in appreciation of his help to the camp during the initiation work. Captain Terry made a suitable response to the presentation. Arthur C. L. Davis, Baker G. Hall, Watchman Ritchie and Sentry Tall all deserve great praise for the excellent manner in which they conducted their parts during the various ceremonies. They have only been in their positions a short time, but have worked hard to attain such perfection. Captain Terry and team had all arrangements made with the officers and members of the camp as to where they should meet on Tuesday to repeat the fraternal visit to Excelsior camp which was made a short time ago. Just as the meeting was about to close a committee from Great Salt Camp was admitted, and announced that their regular meeting for next Tuesday evening was done away with, and that if Excelsior wanted to visit their camp they would have to pay to do so, as they were going to have a card party. This is a very peculiar way of doing things, and it is between the two camps. One of the brother camp officers stated that they did it to show that they were not in the habit of making treatment they received at their hands. We ask all the neighbors who read this paper, "Who is it that is showing up?" who are leading our hall in the K. of P. on Tuesday evening, and in return for the accommodation they are giving us the hall for Wednesday evening, and on that night we will meet with the Royal Neighbors (Salt Lake Valley camp) and the Excelsior camp. Many prizes will be given and everybody is welcome. Eight o'clock sharp.

Great Salt Lake City camp—At last Tuesday's meeting a large turnout of members witnessed the initiation of some recruits to the ranks of Merry Woodmen. The camp's team having won the state drill tournament, the state motto in the matter of putting on the initiatory work in order to keep up their reputation and to hold first place among the state's degree teams. Next Tuesday's meeting will be an open one in order to give a card party for the Excelsior camp, which will be held at their hall for Wednesday evening. The neighbors are notified that the card party will be held in conjunction with Excelsior camp, and that the Excelsior camp will be held at the hall of the K. of P. on Wednesday evening. An excellent program has been arranged for the evening, and each lady is asked to bring a box lunch for two. Eight o'clock sharp.

Salt Lake lodge No. 2 had a very lively session Friday night, when they conferred the first degree on two candidates, and the degree team put on the work in their usual style, after which we had a very nice recitation from Brother Jim Perry and a song from Brother Bert Johnson, which was very well received. Highly judging by the energies they received.

Past Grand Master Price then gave us a fine lecture on Odd Fellowship. Brother Alex Kelly not being a very fine talker, introduced the members to a bunch of songs, which were very much appreciated. Brother Gilbert had to butt in also with a box of cigars. Next Friday we will confer the first degree on three candidates, and all Odd Fellows are invited to come up and see No. 2's new members put on the work. All Odd Fellows are welcome.

Golden Rule encampment No. 2 meets tomorrow night, and it is expected that there will be considerable work on hand for the degree staff.

Squash encampment No. 1 conferred the Patriarchal degree Tuesday evening, and on Tuesday the 26th the captain of the degree staff wishes every member to be present, and to bring a box lunch for two or three for each position in the degree staff, and thereby always insure a full quota at each meeting.

Santon Colfax No. 1 Patriarchal Master, will hold a regular meeting Friday night, the 25th, which is very important, that all the chevaliers attend. The commandant has something that he wishes to communicate to every member, and therefore makes a special request for all, with or without uniform, to be present at this meeting. A guesting card is available that the degree will be conferred on two candidates.

Old Jordan lodge No. 3 is still keeping up the good work. On Monday the first degree was exemplified for the benefit of a class of nine, and that beautiful and impressive degree will be long remembered by not only the candidates but several of the brothers, who had never seen the degree as Old Jordan puts it on. It is expected that the degree will be conferred tonight on those who could not get away, also the first; then the full class of twelve will be ready to receive the second. Enterprise lodge No. 13 has been asked to confer the second Tuesday evening. All brothers are cordially invited to join Old Jordan lodge in making No. 13 a fraternal visit on that evening.

One of the most successful and enjoyable meetings of the Past Noble Grand's club was held at Murray in I. O. O. F. hall by the 21st, last Monday evening. Lodge No. 15. The regular order of business was disposed of and several new members were received. A guesting card took place during the afternoon. Miss Etchel was awarded first prize and Mrs. Mary C. Nickerson carried off the trophy. Later the ladies were served with an elegant lunch, and all spent a social time. Those present were: Mesdames Moore.

Danish Sisterhood.

Lodge Utah No. 69 had an unusually large attendance last Tuesday evening, despite the inclement weather. There were many of the older members, however, and the evening was a very profitable one to the pleasure of the evening. Lodge opened only long enough to discuss with the ladies business, and to receive one application for benefit membership, after which the evening was given over to the program committee, who had a very excellent program prepared. Brother H. M. Lund, as chairman, headed the program with a few remarks suitable to the occasion. The evening's pleasure in detail is as follows: Selection by the Ladies' quartet, the Mesdames A. T. Peterson, Louise Johnson, Sigrid Knudsen, Alma Johansen, original song by Thordvald Olof, piano solo, Miss Olga Nielsen, vocal solo, Stella Lund, violin solo, George Lund, piano, family Olof and Agnes Jensen, original song, Mrs. Christine Peterson. A one-act farce was presented by Miss Sigrid Knudsen and Wilfrid Nilsson, accompanied by Olof and the piano. Punch and cake were served during the evening. Next meeting on May 26. Visitors always welcome.

Knights of Pythias.

The three lodges joined in making Park lodge No. 4 a fraternal visit last Tuesday evening, and the evening was a very profitable one to the pleasure of the evening. Lodge opened only long enough to discuss with the ladies business, and to receive one application for benefit membership, after which the evening was given over to the program committee, who had a very excellent program prepared. Brother H. M. Lund, as chairman, headed the program with a few remarks suitable to the occasion. The evening's pleasure in detail is as follows: Selection by the Ladies' quartet, the Mesdames A. T. Visitors always welcome.

Royal Neighbors.

Monday evening about eighty neighbors and Woodmen were royally entertained by Oracle Larson at her home in Poplar Grove. The spacious rooms were decorated for the occasion in a most tasteful fashion, games being indulged in until a late hour. Music also helped make the evening a most enjoyable one. The prizes were awarded. First gentlemen's prize was awarded Mr. Marsh, second to Mr. Hope, first ladies' prize to Miss Hill, and second to Mrs. Fafek. The luncheon served at the conclusion of the games was very fine, the food being prepared by the color scheme, purple and white. Tonight at 8 o'clock sharp a meeting at I. O. O. F. hall. Everybody welcome.

Castoria.

The James B. McKean W. R. C. will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Pond, 512 South State street, on Thursday afternoon, May 22, at 2 o'clock. BIG JOBS FOR BIG MEN

A few years ago high grade men never advertised for positions. But times are changed since The Tribune became the market place for men. The other day a man got a job as sales manager of a famous manufacturing concern. The president, in hiring him, said: "I was influenced to write you because you advertised that you were not a cheap man." The ad that secured this desirable situation appeared IN A DAILY NEWSPAPER.

It is only one case out of thousands. Employers who read the "Situations Wanted" columns of The Tribune every single day cannot fail to find the kind of a man they could use to advantage. They have learned that the highest class of men are secured through advertising rather than from employment agents or exchanges.
